Takeaways

YOGA: Advay loved to talk and share during our sessions. He made sure to catch the attention of all his peer learners. Even though it has been a challenge to keep his attention through the entire session, he always made up for it by engaging everyone in jokes or just making us laugh by pretending to sleep and snore. He always has his own stories to share relating to the activities in our sessions and he always has a fresh perspective to give.

HIPHOP: Advay danced and participated in the session with a lot of enthusiasm. He was very expressive and communicative throughout.

ARTS: Advay was eager to explore his own creativity and imagination with the concepts that he was exposed to. Given more opportunity, Advay will be able to enhance his knowledge of perspective art and can hone his skills of planning and self-expression.
